

Helen W. Flom

Educational History

Degree: Master of Science
Major: Speech-Language Pathology
Idaho State University, May 1993

Degree: Bachelor of Science
Major: Speech-Language Pathology
Brigham Young University, May 1991

Employment History

Clinical Supervisor
Brigham Young University
Provo, Utah 84602
September 2003- Current

Speech-Language Pathologist
Alpine School District
575 N 100E
American Fork, UT 84003
1-801-756-8400
August 2001 - Current

Speech-Language Pathologist
Miami-Dade County Public Schools
Region VI
30910 SW 157th Ave.
Homestead, FL 33033
1-305-246-5934
August 1999 – August 2001

Speech-Language Pathologist
Fairview Lakes Regional Medical Center
5200 Fairview Boulevard
Wyoming, Minnesota, 55092-8013
1-651-982-7730
December 1998 – August 1999

Speech-Language Pathologist
Rehab Works Rehabilitation
(Formerly Symphony Rehabilitation)
New Brighton, Minnesota
August 1993 – December 1998

Populations Served

Pediatrics (Pre-School - High School)

Developmental Speech & Language Delay, Deaf & Hard of Hearing, Stuttering, Down's Syndrome, Central Auditory Processing Disorder, Dysarthria, Apraxia, Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Treacher-Collins Syndrome, & Aspergers.

Adults

Cerebral Vascular Accidents, Dysphagia, Traumatic Brain Injury, & Disorders of Voice.

Geriatrics

Cerebral Vascular Accidents, Traumatic Brain Injury, Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS), Parkinson's Disease, Tracheostomy Patients, & Dysphagia.

Competencies

- Trained in adapting services for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)
- Assessment of swallowing disorders using VideoFlouroscopy
- Initiated training in Phonological Awareness for Pre-K to 3rd Grade Population
- Strong written and oral documentation skills

Accomplishments

Training & Education

- Trained elementary educators on procedures for incorporating student specific speech-language goals into the classroom. August 1999- Current.
- Supervisor for Clinical Fellowship Year (CFY) and Master's level practicums for Speech-Language Pathology Students. April 1995 – August 1999. January 2003- December 2004
- Conducted inservices at skilled nursing facilities and hospitals on various speech, swallowing, cognitive, and language deficits. September 1994 – December 1998.

Presentations

- How knowledge of child development affects our explanation of medical procedures and processes to young children. Fairview-Regional Medical Center, May 1999
- Implications for treating geriatric and young adults with attention memory

deficits. Symphony Rehabilitation February 1997.

- Speech Language Pathology: What's it really like. Talk given to University of Wisconsin: River Falls Speech/Language Pathology students. March, 1995.

Awards

- Most Accomplished New Clinician. Symphony Rehabilitation Inc. January 1994.

Professional Affiliations

- American Speech/Language and Hearing Association 1994-present