

Collaborate

To work with another person or group in order to achieve something.

Cooperate

Working with another person or group to get something done.

To act in a way that makes something possible or likely.

To be helpful by doing what someone asks or tells you to do.

Compromise

To give up something that you want in order to reach an agreement.

Something agreed upon as a result of each side changing or giving up some demands.