CPSE 644 - Career Development/Assessment

Fall 2017

INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

Name: Vaughn Worthen
Office Location: 1545 WSC
Office Phone: 801-422-6865
Email: vaughn_worthen@byu.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to help you understand the topic of career development, career counseling, career assessment, career program development, and ethics related to providing career services. The course will introduce you to some of the well known and frequently used theories of career development. You will be expected to understand and be able to apply the principles and some of the associated interventions associated with these theories. You will also be exposed to and learn about a variety of career assessment inventories as well as take a few of them and conduct your own self-assessment and then conduct an interview with a colleague and create an assessment report. In this process you will evaluate the psychometric properties of these assessments, the appropriate uses of various assessment instruments, and how to analyze and communicate results in helpful ways to those you work with. You will gain understanding of the importance of occupational information and helpful and valid sources for occupational information. You will examine how to differentially consider how to provide career services in diverse environments with diverse clientele. You will learn about the ethics associated with providing career services. You will also learn about the standards associated with building and providing effective career services. We will also spend some time trying to learn and use effective counseling strategies and skills necessary for effective career counseling. You should be able to understand enough that you could engage in providing career services to individuals.

GRADING POLICY

Grades are not a statement of your personal worth. Grades do reflect effort, professionalism, the sophistication of your writing and thinking, and adherence to instructions. All papers should follow APA format guidelines (unless otherwise specified). If you receive a grade less than you desired you may revise and resubmit with instructor approval. Late assignments will discounted (except in the cases of legitimate emergencies). Any assignment past two weeks due will not be accepted.

PARTICIPATION POLICY

I expect you to come prepared and to actively participate. We will have a better learning environment as everyone commits to being prepared and ready to engage in discussions and participate in role plays.

TEACHING PHILOSOPHY

I hope that we can engage in a joint learning experience. The more you study and prepare for class the greater opportunity to engage in significant discussions and the outcome will lead to better learning. I will seek feedback about how to make the class worthwhile and want to make sure you have the theoretical understanding, ethical knowledge, assessment skills, and intervention strategies to apply what you are learning. I believe that along with the development of content knowledge and application is the ability to become a more effective and sophisticated thinker who can critically evaluate information and arguments and base those on sound reasoning and empirical support.
ATTENDANCE POLICY

Please let me know in advance if you will not be able to make it to class (or as soon as you can after a missed class). If you miss you are still responsible for completing assignments. If you have questions or concerns please communicate with me.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

Mid-Term

Due: Thursday, Oct 26th at 11:59 pm

Mid-Term (100). The midterm is a take-home exam. This exam is open book, open note, open instructor, and open colleague. Most of the questions will come from material that is in your readings and has been discussed in class. However, you are responsible for the assigned readings and some questions may address material in the readings that has not been discussed in class. The format for the exams will be short essay.

Assessments and Assessment Report

Due: Thursday, Nov 9th at 11:59 pm

Here is the assignment:

Here is a template for the report:

Career Topic Literature Review Paper

Due: Thursday, Nov 30th at 11:59 pm

In pairs (or if approved by me, solo), review the literature around a career development topic, okayed by me in advance. I will help you brainstorm your review, if you would like. Here are some ideas just to get your thinking kick started.

- What does the literature say about:
  - Career as calling
  - Career decision making
  - What to do with the undecided
  - The role of assessment
  - Career and multicultural influences
  - Dual career (motherhood and career)
  - Career development interventions and career outcomes
  - Approaches to providing career interventions
  - Employment trends and factors
  - Careers and spirituality
Careers and the interplay of mental health factors

This is designed to be a BRIEF review (not exhaustive). Thus, here are the criteria for the paper:

- You must use 10 references (no more and no less).
- The total paper will be no more than 10 pages long, which should include:
  - a title page
  - an abstract page
  - one reference page
  - that leaves only 7 pages for the review body
- The review must be in APA format.
- Your sources must come from the scientific literature, found almost exclusively in peer reviewed journals. At least 5 of your references will need to come from the following journals (The big four in career development):
  - Journal of Vocational Behavior
  - Journal of Career Assessment
  - Journal of Career Development
  - Career Development Quarterly

Chapter questions

Due: Thursday, Dec 7th at 11:59 pm

- You will be asked to read the assigned chapter and formulate 3 discussion questions arising from the reading. You will submit these by email before each class period of the assigned reading. Make sure you have a copy you can use in class, since we will use that to help us engage in effective learning discussions.
- I have attached some additional readings for each class period. I will ask for volunteers to take responsibility for reading an article and then summarizing and teaching the class the main ideas from the article (about 10 minutes of class time).

Career counseling/advising observations

Due: Thursday, Dec 7th at 11:59 pm

- You are asked to observe 3 sessions of career counseling/advising and then write up your observations. I have arranged with the University Advisement Center (2500 WSC) to let you observe them providing career advising/counseling/inventory interpretations. If you want to observe career counseling occurring at UVU, Deseret Industries, or some other setting you may also work that out with them. If you decide to observe career counseling/advising in the University Advisement Center, you will be asked to contact Pam Huston (801) 422-5747 pam_huston@byu.edu the day you want to observe. They try to see students within a 24 hour time frame. She will then look up the appointments that are coded career, career choosing a major, or career test interpretation. You will be told the time and the advisor they are meeting with. It will be your responsibility to call or email them to see if it would be okay with that advisor if you observe the session.

• Make sure you submit your notes from these observations by the due date.

• Here are some things to comment upon in your notes: what was the nature of the need expressed by the student? What was the attitude or approach of the student? What do you think went well? What do you think might have been done to be more helpful? What did you learn from this experience? (List the date and the advisor/counselor you observed for each observation.

Thoughts and Application Notes

Due: Thursday, Dec 7th at 11:59 pm

• After each class period you will write a brief 1-2 page (don’t worry about APA formatting) reaction paper that will outline your thoughts regarding the ideas presented during class and their potential application in your work (12 total - look on the schedule for when they are due).

• Begin compiling a list of interventions you could use with clients based on each of these theories. This list of interventions and applications will be graded separately at the end of the course. I expect at least 25 interventions.

Interventions and Applications Compilation

Due: Thursday, Dec 14th at 11:59 pm

With each class period and the accompanying readings you will be asked to send me your thoughts and application ideas. This assignment is based on those application thoughts. Create possible interventions you could use with your clients. They can be standard/traditional kind of interventions or creative/unique applications. This is to help you think about how to apply the theories we will cover in this course. Turn in a compilation of all of the interventions you have created before the time of the scheduled final exam. I expect at least 25 interventions. It is probably easier if you create this as you go through the course rather than compile it at the end.

Final Exam

Due: Thursday, Dec 7th at 11:59 pm

Here is the final exam:

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Honor Code

In keeping with the principles of the BYU Honor Code, students are expected to be honest in all of their academic work. Academic honesty means, most fundamentally, that any work you present as your own must in fact be your own work and not that of another. Violations of this principle may result in a failing grade in the course and additional disciplinary action by the university. Students are also expected to adhere to the Dress and Grooming Standards. Adherence demonstrates respect for yourself and others and ensures an effective learning and working environment. It is the university's expectation, and every instructor's expectation in class, that each student will abide by all Honor Code standards. Please call the Honor Code Office at 422-2847 if you have questions about those standards.

Sexual Misconduct

In accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Brigham Young University prohibits sex discrimination against any participant in its education programs or activities. The university also prohibits sexual harassment—including sexual violence—committed by or against students, university employees, and visitors to campus. As outlined in university policy, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are considered forms of "Sexual Misconduct" prohibited by the university.

University policy requires all university employees in a teaching, managerial, or supervisory role to report all incidents of Sexual Misconduct that come to their attention in any way, including but not limited to face-to-face conversations, a written class assignment or paper, class discussion, email, text, or social media post. Incidents of Sexual Misconduct should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at t9coordinator@byu.edu or (801) 422-8692. Reports may also be submitted through EthicsPoint at https://titleix.byu.edu/report or 1-888-238-1062 (24-hours a day).

BYU offers confidential resources for those affected by Sexual Misconduct, including the university's Victim Advocate, as well as a number of non-confidential resources and services that may be helpful. Additional information about Title IX, the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy, reporting requirements, and resources can be found at http://titleix.byu.edu or by contacting the university's Title IX Coordinator.

Student Disability

Brigham Young University is committed to providing a working and learning atmosphere that reasonably accommodates qualified persons with disabilities. If you have any disability which may impair your ability to complete this course successfully, please contact the University Accessibility Center (UAC), 2170 WSC or 422-2767. Reasonable academic accommodations are reviewed for all students who have qualified, documented disabilities. The UAC can also assess students for learning, attention, and emotional concerns. Services are coordinated with the student and instructor by the UAC. If you need assistance or if you feel you have been unlawfully discriminated against on the basis of disability, you may seek resolution through established grievance policy and procedures by contacting the Equal Employment Office at 422-5895, D-285 ASB.

Academic Honesty

The first injunction of the Honor Code is the call to "be honest." Students come to the university not only to improve their minds, gain knowledge, and develop skills that will assist them in their life's work, but also to build character. "President David O. McKay taught that character is the highest aim of education" (The Aims of a BYU Education, p.6). It is the purpose of the BYU Academic Honesty Policy to assist in fulfilling that aim. BYU students should seek to be totally honest in their dealings with others. They should complete their own work and be evaluated based upon that work. They should avoid academic dishonesty and misconduct in all its forms, including but not limited to plagiarism, fabrication or falsification, cheating, and other academic misconduct.

Mental Health Concerns

Mental health concerns and stressful life events can affect students’ academic performance and quality of life. BYU Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS, 1500 WSC, 801-422-3035, caps.byu.edu) provides individual, couples, and group counseling, as well as stress management services. These services are confidential and are provided by the university at no cost for full-time students. For general information please visit https://caps.byu.edu; for more immediate concerns please visit http://help.byu.edu.

Plagiarism

Intentional plagiarism is a form of intellectual theft that violates widely recognized principles of academic integrity as well as the Honor Code. Such plagiarism may subject the student to appropriate disciplinary action administered through the university Honor Code Office, in addition to academic sanctions that may be applied by an instructor. Inadvertent plagiarism, which may not be a violation of the Honor Code, is nevertheless a form of intellectual carelessness that is unacceptable in the academic community. Plagiarism of any kind is completely contrary to the established practices of higher education where all members of the university are expected to acknowledge the original intellectual work of others that is included in their own work. In some cases, plagiarism may also involve violations of copyright law. Intentional Plagiarism- Intentional plagiarism is the deliberate act of representing the words, ideas, or data of another as one's own without providing proper attribution to the author through quotation, reference, or footnote. Inadvertent Plagiarism-Inadvertent plagiarism involves the inappropriate, but non-deliberate, use of another's words, ideas, or data without proper attribution. Inadvertent plagiarism usually results from an ignorant failure to follow established rules for documenting sources or from simply not being sufficiently careful in research and writing. Although not a violation of the Honor Code, inadvertent plagiarism is a form of academic misconduct for which an instructor can impose appropriate academic sanctions. Students who are in doubt as to whether they are providing proper attribution have the responsibility to consult with their instructor and obtain guidance. Examples of plagiarism include: Direct Plagiarism-The verbatim copying of an original source without acknowledging the source. Paraphrased Plagiarism-The paraphrasing, without acknowledgement, of ideas from another that the reader might mistake for the author's own. Plagiarism Mosaic-The borrowing of words, ideas, or data from an original source and blending this original material with one's own without acknowledging the source. Insufficient Acknowledgement-The partial or incomplete attribution of words, ideas, or data from an original source. Plagiarism may occur with respect to unpublished as well as published material. Copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own individual work without proper attribution is a serious form of plagiarism.

Respectful Environment

"Sadly, from time to time, we do hear reports of those who are at best insensitive and at worst insulting in their comments to and about others... We hear derogatory and sometimes even defamatory comments about those with different political, athletic, or ethnic views or experiences. Such behavior is completely out of place at BYU, and I enlist the aid of all to monitor carefully and, if necessary, correct any such that might occur here, however inadvertent or unintentional. "I worry particularly about demeaning comments made about the career or major choices of women or men either directly or about members of the BYU community generally. We must remember that personal agency is a fundamental principle and that none of us has the right or option to criticize the lawful choices of another." President Cecil O. Samuelson, Annual University Conference, August 24, 2010 "Occasionally, we ... hear reports that our female faculty feel disrespected, especially by students, for choosing to work at BYU, even though each one has been approved by the BYU Board of Trustees. Brothers and sisters, these things ought not to be. Not here. Not at a university that shares a constitution with the School of the Prophets." Vice President John S. Tanner, Annual University Conference, August 24, 2010
