Convocation Speaker

Sarah K. Clark

Dr. Sarah K. Clark is a professor in the Department of Teacher Education and is currently serving as an associate dean in the McKay School of Education. For more than 30 years, Dr. Clark has been involved in the field of education in a variety of roles, including classroom teacher, curriculum developer, author, editor, instructional coach, consultant, researcher, and university professor. She has published research in leading journals in the education field, including Teaching and Teacher Education, the Journal of Educational Research, and the Journal of Teacher Education. Dr. Clark earned a PhD in curriculum and instruction with a specialization in teacher education and literacy instruction from Utah State University. She received a master of arts degree in education with a specialization in language, reading, and culture from the University of Arizona and a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education from the University of Arizona.

Dr. Clark is the eighth of 13 children; she was born in New Mexico but later moved with her family to a farm in southern Arizona. She is married to Michael Clark, and they are the parents of two daughters and the grandparents of two wonderful grandsons, Jack and Henry. Dr. Clark considers it a great privilege and joy to work at BYU and loves the time she spends with both students and colleagues. In her spare time, she enjoys hiking in the mountains, serving in her ward and community, trying out new recipes, hosting friends and family, and traveling with her husband to the national parks.

Now Let Us Rejoice

Now let us rejoice in the day of salvation.
No longer as strangers on earth need we roam.
Good tidings are sounding to us and each nation,
And shortly the hour of redemption will come,
When all that was promised the Saints will be given,
And none will molest them from morn until ev'n,
And earth will appear as the Garden of Eden,
And Jesus will say to all Israel, "Come home."

We'll love one another and never dissemble,
But cease to do evil and ever be one.
And when the ungodly are fearing and tremble,
We'll watch for the day when the Savior will come,
When all that was promised the Saints will be given,
And none will molest them from morn until ev'n,
And earth will appear as the Garden of Eden,
And Jesus will say to all Israel, "Come home."

In faith we'll rely on the arm of Jehovah
To guide thru these last days of trouble and gloom,
And after the scourges and harvest are over,
We'll rise with the just when the Savior doth come.
Then all that was promised the Saints will be given,
And they will be crown'd with the angels of heav'n,
And earth will appear as the Garden of Eden,
And Christ and his people will ever be one.
