

The number is _____.

There are _____ ten(s) and _____ one(s) in (say the number above.)

That is _____ (count how many total in the tens)

+ _____ (count how many total in the ones).

That makes _____ altogether.

If I were to count how many ONES in all, there are _____ ones.

The number is _____.

There are _____ ten(s) and _____ one(s) in (say the number above.)

That is _____ (count how many total in the tens)

+ _____ (count how many total in the ones).

That makes _____ altogether.

If I were to count how many ONES in all, there are _____ ones.

The number is _____.

There are _____ ten(s) and _____ one(s) in (say the number above.)

That is _____ (count how many total in the tens)

+ _____ (count how many total in the ones).

That makes _____ altogether.

If I were to count how many ONES in all, there are _____ ones.