Grading Policy
You cannot make up any participation points or in-class activities. You will be able to drop your lowest participation and discussion grades. Late assignments are a struggle for me. So, if you turn in an assignment late, I will try to get it graded, but cannot guarantee that it will get graded. Additionally, if I do grade a late assignment, it will receive only half credit.
I recognize that life happens. So, if you need some particular accommodation for your circumstances, please let me know and to the extent that we can, we will work something out. However, coming to me after the fact makes it difficult to be helpful, so please let me know in advance. Finally, I want to be absolutely clear that your grade in this class (or any other class) your grade does not matter if you have not mastered the material and developed the commensurate skills. When you are working with an ethically challenging situation, people will not care what grade you got in this class. They will only care about your ability to help them succeed. PLEASE DO NOT FOCUS ON YOUR GRADE IN THIS CLASS. FOCUS ON LEARNING THE MATERIAL WELL AND DEVELOPING THE NEEDED SKILLS. THE GRADE WILL FOLLOW. At their best, grades are a very vague approximation of what you have learned and what skills you have developed. The process of evaluation and grading is not precise. When I grade your work, there will always be an element of "making a judgement". You may disagree with the judgement I have made, but I typically will not change grades based on a disagreement about a judgement. If I have made a mistake, which I do, let me know and I'll make the correction.

Participation Policy
This class is heavily dependent on your participation. Please come to each class prepared to discuss the readings, case studies, and in class scenarios.

Attendance Policy
Your in-person attendance is required for this course. You will be required to record your attendance for each class session. There is no way to make up or get credit for a missed class. If you arrive more than 5 min late, please mark your attendance as "Late".

Study Habits
Eyring_Henry_1997_10.pdf Download (plugins/Upload/fileDownload.php?fileId=f88f776e-nFlc-9Fmz-jSgj-f33dcd8f4095&pubhash=earGZwF1vJ0Eq_jvXDBqRib4uf3heQPPpW_FGx5AB0Yqc_C49ibLx_H3RTCxWlzMWxNcoWYjxiW!)
The standard work load, as prescribed by the university, for a class is 3 hours outside of class for each hour in class. So, for this class you should anticipate devoting 7.5 hours of time to this class outside of class. If you find that you are not spending that much time on this class, please consider how you might learn the material better by devoting more time to it. For example, you could re-read the chapter or work on committing certain terms or concepts to memory. You could prepare questions to ask when you come to class (please seriously consider doing this). Your goal should not be to "complete the work" it should be to master the material. If you find that you need to do more than 7.5 hours of preparation outside of class in order to be prepared for class, let me know and we'll adjust accordingly.

Expectations
1. Attend class
2. Participate
3. Accept and give feedback
Notes

I reserve the right to make changes to the syllabus and the course in response to class performance, class feedback, or both. We will inevitably need to make adjustments as we go so, please be flexible as we work through the course.

Feedback

The way we learn is by emitting behavior and then receiving feedback on our behavior. Typical university courses are set up so that the instructor gives the students feedback. There are few opportunities for students to give the instructor feedback. I recognize that I won't get better in the absence of feedback, so please consider it your responsibility to give me feedback on the course, the content, the assignments, etc. I may not always make specific changes based on your feedback, but I will always take it into consideration.

Books/Articles

You will read some articles for this class and you will need to download the articles from the BYU Library Website or some other website. If you have questions about how to do that please contact one of our university librarians.

Diversity and Inclusion

In the CPSE Department, we value and respect every person and seek to promote multicultural competence. Consequently, we need to take steps to listen to, learn from, and respect one another, such as proactively considering others’ views and persisting to find common ground and mutually beneficial solutions when differences inevitably occur. Awareness of “the gift of personal dignity for every child of God”(i) includes seeing both similarities and differences without simplification, overgeneralization, or minimization of historical and ongoing oppression – with an explicit intent to “eliminate any prejudice, including racism, sexism, and nationalism(ii)…regardless of age, personal circumstances, gender, sexual orientation, or other unique challenges.”(iii) Our aim of interpersonal unity and collective wellbeing requires welcoming diverse perspectives and experiences as we “work tirelessly to build bridges of understanding.”(iv) Achieving the ultimate unity we seek, a Zion community, entails genuine efforts to maintain mutual trust, fostered by principles of equity, charity, collaboration, and inclusiveness. If you witness actions or intentions counter to these objectives, we request that you please kindly share your perspectives with those involved rather than remain silent, and if we faculty are part of the problem, we invite you to speak with us, the department chair, or college dean. When you witness actions supportive of inclusion or indicative of multicultural competence, please also share those positive observations to foster a synergistic climate in our class and program.

University Policies

Honor Code
In keeping with the principles of the BYU Honor Code, students are expected to be honest in all of their academic work. Academic honesty means, most fundamentally, that any work you present as your own must in fact be your own work and not that of another. Violations of this principle may result in a failing grade in the course and additional disciplinary action by the university. Students are also expected to adhere to the Dress and Grooming Standards. Adherence demonstrates respect for yourself and others and ensures an effective learning and working environment. It is the university's expectation, and every instructor's expectation in class, that each student will abide by all Honor Code standards. Please call the Honor Code Office at 422-2847 if you have questions about those standards.

Preventing Sexual Misconduct
Brigham Young University prohibits all forms of sexual harassment—including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking on the basis of sex. Students must be aware of the university's policies and be respectful of others. Students are expected to maintain a safe environment for all students and faculty within the classroom setting.
violence, domestic violence, and stalking on the basis of sex—by its personnel and students and in all its education programs or activities. University policy requires all faculty members to promptly report incidents of sexual harassment that come to their attention in any way and encourages reports by students who experience or become aware of sexual harassment. Incidents should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at t9coordinator@byu.edu or (801) 422-8692 or 1085 WSC. Reports may also be submitted online at https://titleix.byu.edu/report or 1-888-238-1062 (24-hours a day). BYU offers a number of resources and services for those affected by sexual harassment, including the university’s confidential Sexual Assault Survivor Advocate. Additional information about sexual harassment, the university’s Sexual Harassment Policy, reporting requirements, and resources can be found in the University Catalog, by visiting http://titleix.byu.edu, or by contacting the university’s Title IX Coordinator.

Student Disability
Brigham Young University is committed to providing a working and learning atmosphere that reasonably accommodates qualified persons with disabilities. A disability is a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Whether an impairment is substantially limiting depends on its nature and severity, its duration or expected duration, and its permanent or expected permanent or long-term impact. Examples include vision or hearing impairments, physical disabilities, chronic illnesses, emotional disorders (e.g., depression, anxiety), learning disorders, and attention disorders (e.g., ADHD). If you have a disability which impairs your ability to complete this course successfully, please contact the University Accessibility Center (UAC), 2170 WSC or 801-422-2767 to request a reasonable accommodation. The UAC can also assess students for learning, attention, and emotional concerns. If you feel you have been unlawfully discriminated against on the basis of disability, please contact the Equal Opportunity Office at 801-422-5895, eo_manager@byu.edu, or visit https://hrs.byu.edu/equal-opportunity for help.

Diversity and Inclusion in the Classroom
"Because we feel the depth of God's love for His children, we care deeply about every child of God, regardless of age, personal circumstances, gender, sexual orientation, or other unique challenges" community we strive to foster an educational environment that promotes the personal dignity of every student and accept individual responsibility to eliminate racism, sexism, and nationalism. Our course participation reflects our understanding that every individual is a child of Heavenly Parents. We create learning environments in which every individual is motivated to express their opinions and perspectives and ask questions to augment discussions and learning. We listen to, learn from, and strive to consider thoughtfully the opinions of others. We use language that is polite, considerate, and courteous—even when we strongly disagree.

Mental Health
Mental health concerns and stressful life events can affect students’ academic performance and quality of life. BYU Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS, 1500 WSC, 801-422-3035, caps.byu.edu) provides individual, couples, and group counseling, as well as stress management services. These services are confidential and are provided by the university at no cost for full-time students. For general information please visit https://caps.byu.edu; for more immediate concerns please visit http://help.byu.edu.
