Co-Director and Co-Principal Investigator

John Templeton Foundation Grant

- Overseeing a research project as co-director and co-principal investigator of a large international John Templeton Foundation Grant ($3,572,011 between 3/2017-3/2020) that provides money towards research on spiritual oriented psychotherapies in mental health centers involving 22 research sites across the globe, which include North, Central, and South America, Asia, Europe, and South Pacific to name a few. Each site has a team of researchers, therapists, and clergy collecting data which are available for all 22 sites (including our team) for examination and preparation for conference presentations and publications in top-tier journals. I have been co-facilitating in this position of director over research operations with Dr. P. Scott Richards since January 2015. This is a prestigious grant from an even more prestigious private foundation that is known throughout the world in the areas of science and religion.
